1. ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Dakshin Kamrup Girls' College is located in the sylvan environs of Mirza. It is the only educational institution for girls, in entire south bank of river Brahmaputra towards the west of Guwahati. It came into existence 30 years ago on 20th November 1988. The college was initially started in the adjacent institution, D.K. College. Later it was shifted to present location, which spreads over a considerable area of about 12 Bighas. It is about 20 k.m. from Gauhati University. Mirza is a semi town area surrounded by a number of villages comprising people of different religions, class, castes & creed. The college was founded by a handful of eminent personalities of Dakshin Kamrup, under the able stewardship of erstwhile state education minister Sri Jatin Mali, who also laid down the foundation stone of the college on 20-11-88. Since then the institution has been contributing to the cause of women education in the Dakshin Kamrup area. The college offers a rich range of academic disciplines for the students coming from different parts of Dakshin Kamrup. The college comes under the purview of section 2 (f) of the UGC Act w.e.f. 19th September 2012.

The construction of a two storied building for women hostel is already completed, which can accommodate 40 students. Construction of the second floor is going on with a capacity of 20 more seats. The college has two magnificent buildings, one, three storied, furnished with Principal's chamber and his office. Adjoining to it, another two storied building constructed recently with the financial aid received from the state government. Its foundation stone was laid down by the then Education Minister Dr. Himanta Bishwa Sharma. This building accommodates, Digital Classroom, P.G. Dept. & Departmental chambers. Just in front of it, construction of sports complex is under process with the financial assistance from the UGC. It is expected to be completed in due time. There are four large Assam type buildings to accommodate the classrooms, library, labs (Home Science & Education) and Vice-Principal's chamber. A computer training centre is going to open short by with the financial Assistance of NEEPCO Ltd. Just in front of the woman hostel there lies a vast playground that looks green like carpet, throughout the year. Entire college campus is girdled with strong concrete wall.

The college offers H.S. & Degree courses in Arts stream. Keeping in mind the need of the girl students' the college has introduced Home science as an optional subject in both Higher Secondary and Degree course. Short term, need based and career oriented programmes are also organized from time to time with the help of the various departments. Mass Communication & Journalism has also been introduced in the year 2015.

The college has introduced P.G. Course in Assamese and steps have been taken to enhance the P.G. Course by switching over to Education, Political Science & History under Gauhati University.

UGC sponsored Minor Research Projects by 2 teachers have been going on from different faculty members and 7 teachers have been completed their MRP. NAAC Assessment had been completed on 23rd September, 2016 and the college has been accredited with 'B' Grade.

MISSION

The mission of the College is to impart the knowledge of the self that can prepare the students to lead a happy and meaningful life through the process of teaching and learning.

VISION

The College has the noble vision of occupying a prestigious position in the field of higher education of women and transforming itself into a centre of excellence. It always remains an earnest endeavour on the part of the college to empower the girls student economically, politically & socially. The sloka engraved in the college emblem is - Vidyaya Bindate Amritam, which means, when Brahma is known in all mentation, then complete knowledge or real wisdom is attained. A person with such knowledge attains maturity.

About Mass Communication

Course offered : Bachelor of Mass Communication

'Media' is one of the most useful essences of human life. We speak of mass media, of media revolution and of living in a media society. Mass media in India and in the world has been going through a revolutionary progress since the beginning of 21st century. Dakshin Kamrup Girls' College, a premier institution for women in the entire area of South Kamrup intends to launch B.A. in Mass Communication from the session 2014-15 to meet the growing demands for the subject in the entire area of South Kamrup.

The course has been designed to provide students with a firm grounding in communication skills. It aims to develop the ability for critical thinking and creativity and to give the students an opportunity to combine the theoretical curriculum with practical applications through detailed research, lucid writing skills, oral presentation skills and a mastery over various mass communication media available in our global information age. Through curricular, extra-curricular and internship activities, the department will help students building a broad understanding of the role of mass communication as a discipline in the present society. The Mass Communication program will provide students with a well rounded understanding in the field of Mass Communication, while allowing for the acquisition of an in-depth understanding of Print & Electronic Media, Journalism, Rural communication, Film Studies, Cultural Studies etc.

14. UNIFORM

For H.S. / T.D.C., B.M.C. & PG students' there is a provision for separate uniform. The pattern & design of the uniform can be found in the college Notice Board.

15. ANTI - RAGGING COMMITTEE

The College has been declared an Anti-Ragging Zone since its inception, even much before the verdict of the Supreme Court. On the day of admission into any courses, the principal in his welcome address, strictly warns the students to refrain themselves from ragging. About the consequence of ragging, if detected is intimated to them. It is a matter of pride that not a single incident relating to ragging has taken place so far. The Anti-Ragging committee headed by the principal keeps close eyes on the senior students. If any one would be found involved in ragging would have to face severe action from the college authority.

Anti-Ragging Committee :

- (i) Chair person : Dr. Gajendra Adhikary, Principal
- (ii) Co-ordinator : Dr. Ranjan Bhuyan, Vice-Principal
- (iii) Members : Dr. Kishor Sarma
Prof. Jinu Das
Prof. Kamaleswar Borah
The OC of Palashbari Police Station
V.P. & G.S. of students' union

16. STUDENTS' UNION ELECTION

The students' union election of our college is unique & ideal. Since its inception, certain rules have been made for the contesting candidates. That no candidate will be allowed to hang banners, sticking of bills, distribution of leaflets, scribbling on the wall etc. These restrictions apply even out side the college also. Till date, this rule has not been violated by any candidate. The vice-principal of the college acts as the returning officer. He is supervised by the principal and supported by other members of both teaching & non-teaching staff of the college. The members of the election committee keep changing from time to time. This year's committee is shown below.

Students' Union Election Committee :

- (i) Chair person : Dr. Gajendra Adhikary, Principal
- (ii) Returning Officer : Dr. Ranjan Bhuyan, Vice-Principal
- (iii) Members : Dr. Jagannath Barman
Members of Students' Union

17. PARENTS MEET

Education has become a tri-dimensional process that involves students, teachers' & parents. It is through the mutual co-operation that the pillar of education can stand still. Every year the parents meet is arranged in the college campus to have more specific outcome. Suggestions received from the parents are given due importance by the college authority and measures are taken in the best feasible way. Other than the meeting, the parents are always welcome to the college for any information regarding their wards. A parents association has also been opened in the college which has established a link between the students and the college authority.

18. CELEBRATION OF THE TITHI OF SRIMANTA SANKARADEVA AND OTHER IMPORTANT EVENTS

Every year the Death Anniversary of Srimanta Sankaradeva, the great social reformer, a giant genius in Assamese literature (15th & 16th century) is observed in the college premises with much devotion. All the members of the college family celebrate the occasion in a suitable way. Other than this, Gandhi Jayanti, Teachers' Day, Silpi Divas etc are also celebrated with great mirth.

19. FRESHERS' SOCIAL

Every year by the beginning of the academic session, a grand programme is organized to welcome the fresh students of the college. The programme is organized by the D.K. Girls' College Students Union under the supervision of the principal & other members of the college. A cultural programme is arranged in which both senior & fresh students take active part. Some renowned scholars, men of repute & artists from the state are invited to grace the occasion.

20. ANNUAL COLLEGE WEEK

Annual College Week is an indispensable part of the college. It is the occasion when students can show their performances through games & sports, literary & cultural competitions. Different competitions are held & the winners are acknowledged by medals. The best among them are sent to G.U. to take part in Youth Festival. On the concluding day, the Annual College Magazine is also released in the open meeting in presence of guests. A colourful cultural programme by the students is another important attraction of the week.

21. OBSERVANCE OF INDEPENDENCE DAY & REPUBLIC DAY

Independence Day & Republic Day is observed in the college compound with much devotion by hoisting the national flag by the principal of the college. The flag hoisting ceremony is attended by Teachers, Students, Employees & a few local people, followed by a fruitful discussion on the contemporary socio-economic matters.
